GREAT WHIG GATHERING IN NEW Democratic State Convention. YORK - HORACE GREELEY FOR TAY-

Wednesday evening last:

VAUKHALL—both in the Saloon and Garden —was fall again to overflowing last night. Long before the hour of meeting the room was crowded, and the people were as thick as ever in the Garden. With bands and banners they had come in procession to ratify the nominations of the Whig party. State and National. A stand was erected in the north-west corner of the Garden, and around it large masses assembled, who could not gain admittance to the room. Another stand was erected in the south-east corner, and around was erected in the south-east corner in the foreroom, to take such measures for the oricleok in this verillax, the has returned to this vidiage after an absence of a year, making in vestigations and improvement; in the Daguerre-an Art—having visited the principal establishments of the kind in the citizens of Middlebury and vicinity that he has returned to this vidiage after an absenc not gain admittance to the room. Another stand was erected in the south-east corner, and around was crected in the south-east corner, and around this, too, was a large meeting.

The principle stand in the Garden was surrounded with numerous flags and transparencies, displaying various celebrated sayings of "Old Zack." There was also a large portrait of the General on horseback. On the banners and transparencies also were the names of MILLARD FILLMORE, HAMILTON FISH, and G. W. PATTERSON. THE MEETING IN THE SALOON.

At precisely 7 1-2 o'clock, Hon. PHILIP HONE

[Lond cheers]
Mr. Hoxi said he was extremely happy to see that we were unanimous infavor of Taxlor. He would, without farther comment, move that the chair be taken by one whose name recalls to us the memory of his sainted father-HON. WILLIAM KENT.

Mr. Kent on taking the chair was received

[After an account of the further organization, the report of the Delegates to the State Convention, and a series of ab'e and spirited resolutions, the Tribune proceeds to give nn abstract of the Speech of Gen. Leslie Combs, and the Hon. Ogden Hoffman.-The account continues:]

Mr. HOFFMAN having concluded,

II. GREELEY was called for, and, the call being persisted in, he came forward and said : the Legislature, I trust, fellow-citizens, I shall never be a- TERMS,—Single copy for the session, $1 fraid nor ashamed to meet a Whig assemblage and express my sentiments on the Political questions of the day. And although I have no intimation till now that my presence here was expected or desired, I am the more ready to answer your call since I have heard intimations, even from this stand, that there was some mystery in my course to be cleared un-some astounding revelation with regard to it to be expected. And our eloquent friend from Kentucky even volunteered, in his remarks, to see me personally and get me right. If there he indeed any mystery in the premises I will do my best to dispel it -But I have, in truth, nothing to reveal, I stated in announcing Gen. Taylor's nomination, the day after it was made, that I would support him if I saw no other way to defeat the election of Lowis Cass. That pledge I have ever regarded. I shall faithfully re-deem it. And, since there is now no chance remaining that any other than Gen Cas can be elected. I shall henceforth suppor the ticket nominated at Philadelphia, and dwhat I can for its election.

But I have not changed my opinion of the termination of Gen. Taylor I believe it was miwise and unjust. For Gen. Taylor per sonally, I have ever spoken with respect; but I believe a candidate could and should have been chosen more deserving, more expublic more papalar. I cannot pretend to support him with enthusiasm, for I do not feel any. Yet while I frankly acow that I would do tle merely to make Gen. Taylor President I cannot forget that others stand or fall with bien, and that among them are Fo among and FIGE, and PATTERSON, with whom I have builed for the Whig cause ever since I was entided to vote, and to whom I cannot now be unfaithful. I cannot forget that if Gen. Taylor be elected we shall in all probability ove a White Congress; if Gen. Cass is elested, a Loca Foro Congress. Who can ask me to throw away all these because of my objections to Gen. Taylor? And then the question of Free Soil, what shall be the fate of that? I presome there are some Free Soil men [ 'Yes! Yes! all Free Soil !']-I mean those to whom the question of extending or restricting Slavery outweighs all other considerations. I ask these what hope they have of keeping Slavery out of California and New-Mexico with Gen. Cass President, and a Loco-Foco Congress? I have none. And I appeal to every Free Soil Whig to ask himself this question-'How would South Carolina and Texas wish you to vote? Can you doubt that your bitter adversaries would rejoice to hear that you had resolved to break off from the Whig party and permit Gen. Cass to be chosen President with an obedient Congress? I cannot doubt it. And I cannot believe that a wise or worthy course, which my bitterest adversaries would gladly work out

Of Gen. Taylor's soun lness on this question, I feel no assurance, and can give none. But believe him clearly pledged by his letters to eave legislation to Congress, and not attempt o control by his veto the policy of the counrv. I believe a Whig Cangress will not conent to extend Slavery, and that a Whig President will not go to war with Congress and the general spirit of his party. So believing, I shall support the Whig nominations with a such of the highest standing, among whom we may mention view to the triumph of Free Soil, trusting that the day is not distant when an amendment of admit that this much dreaded disease may be cured, even the Federal Constitution will give the appoint- in its advanced stages, when the lungs are not completely ment of Postmasters and other local officers to disorganized. The remedy which we now offer, Wistar the People, and strip the President of the enormous and anti-republican patronage which only emanates from a regular Physician, but has also been now causes the whole Political action of the well tested in all the complaints for which it is recommended country to hinge upon its Presidential Elections. It is not my intention, therefore, either to clouk it in myste-Such are my views; such will be my course. A Glee Club then sung three or four capital Door," "Dearest Mae," &c.; after which the meeting adjourned.

The examination of those suppos ed to have been engaged in the murder of the Irishman, Leonard, in Ludlow, is still progressing. Eight have already been committed to jail to take their trial at the next term of the Windsor County Court.

Whig State Convention, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17th, 1848.

The Whigs of Vermont are requested to meet in Convention, at the Village of called the meeting to order, and in doing so made a few pertinent and eloquent remarks. He asked who, in that vast assembly, was in favor of Vast Braen ! No body. Who here is in favor of Lewis Casa! Nobody. Who is there here who will say that he is opposed to Zachart Taylor! proaching Presidential Election, as well as the just renown of the State for firmpess and consistency of political principle and action, will ensure a very general at-tendance. They invite their Whig friends throughout the State to be present.

J. G. Barber of Le Roy, State of New York, says that the great American Remedy, Vaughn's Vegetable Lithouripite Mixture, sells in his section better than any other emergy. It has made some astonishing cures, and is in consequence sought after by all classes of people. The most singular part of this has incess is that no matter what constantly you have, this article seems to help it, in fact it cures to. Somehow these notices which we publish read rather artiking some times, but it is so. No article in the whole madical lim has dane so much, and if you will call on the Agent, of this paper, he will tell you of cases which have found health by the use of this article which have tried every thin; in vain. GREAT CURE.

Wallingford, Sept. 13, 1848.

Mesers, Geo. Stanton & Co.—Genats.—I feel it a duty I owe both you and the public, to make the following statements. In Nov. 1847, I was taken with a severe pain in my treat toe, which become a running sore, (lost one joint,) and extended up my leg and was in such a state that the Doctor said I could live but a short time. I heard of Hunt's Limiment—sent and got a hottle which gave me immediate relief, and the second entirely cured me. I am now well, and I think Hunt's Limiment saved my life.

GREAT & IMPORTANT CHEMICAL DISCOVERY

Chemical Combination from the Vegetable

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL MEDI-CINE IN THE WORLD!

The result of a series of Chemical Experiments, this Compound Extract of Yellow Doct and Surapparilla, with almost equally powerful regetable substance, is one of the greatest discoveries of the age; and is the first and only instance in which these Roots—so long in use by the faculty have been united into a Compound possessing the due procertion of the peculiar virtues ing the due proportion of the peculiar virtues and powers of each.

Its success is astonishing, having performed over fifteen thousand cures since its discovery—less than two years!

Its unrivalled power over disease, and great superiority over all Sample Sarasparilla Syrups, may be attributed to the fact that it is composed purely of vegetable substances, each one having direct reference to some internal organ; consequently the whole system is benefitted.
